Global industry, one solution

The technology sector lends itself to international activity, and businesses that are truly global can grow rapidly. The technology market is highly competitive and ever changing, creating constant challenges and opportunities.

The ability of a service provider to understand and provide global technology entities with the right mix of experience and innovation in overcoming these issues to convert opportunities is critical. Moore Stephens International's Global Technology Group specifically works with leading international technology organisations to deliver value and create competitive advantage.

Global reach

Our Global Technology Group is strategically placed around the globe, centred on hubs in Silicon Valley and New York City in the US, London, Munich, Berlin and Paris in Europe and throughout Asia Pacific.

Our objective is simple: to be viewed by clients as the first point-of-contact for all their financial, advisory and compliance needs throughout their company's lifecycle. We achieve this by providing sensible advice and tailored solutions to help our clients achieve their commercial and personal goals.
